

Publishing Guidelines & Standards

Academic & Spiritual Publication Support by Saraswati Publishing House

Why Publishing Matters

Publishing your work — whether an academic paper, book, or spiritual guide — is the most powerful way to establish your expertise and contribute to your field. Dr. Richa Paliwal through Saraswati Publishing House provides end-to-end publishing support for authors at all stages.

Services Offered

Service	Description
Manuscript Editing	Grammar, structure, style, and clarity improvements
Formatting	Journal-specific or book formatting (APA, MLA, Chicago, etc.)
Plagiarism Check	Turnitin / iThenticate-based similarity report
Journal Selection	Scopus, UGC-CARE, Q1/Q2 journal recommendations
Book Publishing	Self-publishing & traditional publishing guidance
ISBN / Copyright	Assistance with ISBN registration and copyright filing

Academic Paper Publishing — Checklist

- Abstract: 150–250 words, structured (Background, Methods, Results, Conclusion).
- Keywords: 5–7 precise terms for indexing.
- Introduction: State the problem, significance, and research objectives clearly.
- References: Use citation managers (Zotero/Mendeley) to avoid errors.
- Cover Letter: Always include a compelling cover letter to the editor.

Book Publishing — Getting Started

Whether you want to publish a textbook, self-help book, or spiritual guide, the journey starts with a clear manuscript outline. Saraswati Publishing House supports independent authors with professional editing, cover design, and distribution strategy. Your story deserves to be told — we help you tell it right.

Get Started Today

Visit drrichapaliwal.store/publishing for consultation. First 30-minute discussion is complimentary.